EDP coverage

Well, we got in the paper: see page 18 of today's Eastern Daily Press. There is a full page about the test-pitting with quotes from Will and Rex and Liz Humphrey, local residents. No mention of the cake competition though. Anyway, pop out and get an EDP or look on line at www.edp24.co.uk/home/e-edition if you are in the terra incognita beyond Norfolk. (You still have to pay £1.60.)

Geology workshops

While I have your attention just a reminder about the geology workshops: the 9 March session is now full but there are some places on the 21 March, 10.00 to 12.30 at the Caistor Hall Hotel.

On booking you will be sent illustrated information sheets which you should read beforehand and bring with you to the workshop. There will be rock samples to handle during the workshop.

This workshop is free to all full members and £5 to non-members. If you have not taken out membership yet join up by completing the membership form downloadable from caistorromanproject.org/forms/CRP_membership.pdf.

Please book your place with Chrissy at brilix@icloud.com.
